Andrew J. LeVoir, M.S., has a Bachelor of Social Work degree and a Master of Science degree in Rehabilitation Counseling. He is a certified rehabilitation counselor and certified vocational evaluator. He currently serves as secretary of the California chapter of the International Association of Rehabilitation Counselors. He is a current member of the American Board of Vocational Experts, the International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals, the National Rehabilitation Counseling Association, and the Rehabilitation Counseling Professionals Association of Arkansas. He is also a vocational return-to-work counselor for the State of California.

Mr. LeVoir brings his unique skills, experience, and knowledge in vocational rehabilitation and evaluation to his work as a rehabilitation consultant for Mirfak Associates, Inc. He has provided vocational rehabilitation and evaluation services for the State of Arkansas and rehabilitation and case management services for a residential non-profit organization. His current focus is on evaluating the employability, apportionment, earning capacity, and amenability to rehabilitation for injured workers with a claim for permanent and total disability. He also evaluates the employability and earning capacity of plaintiffs related to third party, personal injury and other civil cases.
