Keondra L. Hampton holds a Bachelor of Science in Biology and a Master of Science in Rehabilitation Counseling. She is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC) and Certified Vocational Evaluator (CVE) with extensive experience in vocational rehabilitation, evaluation, and consulting. Ms. Hampton currently serves as a Board Member-at-Large for the Emerging Professionals Section of the International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (IARP). She is an active member of the National Rehabilitation Counseling Association, the International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals, and the Rehabilitation Counseling Professionals Association of Arkansas, where she previously served as President and Executive Board Member.

Ms. Hampton brings a diverse background in vocational rehabilitation and evaluation to her work as a Rehabilitation Consultant with Mirfak Associates, Inc. Her professional experience includes providing vocational rehabilitation services, pre-employment transition services, and compliance monitoring for the State of Arkansas Rehabilitation Division. She has also provided vocational consulting in workers' compensation matters and conducted both domestic and international labor market surveys under the Defense Base Act. She has provided deposition and trial testimony as a vocational expert in workers' compensation and civil matters. In addition to her consulting work, Ms. Hampton has experience in program management under the U.S. Department of Labor, career counseling through the Job Corps, and higher education as an adjunct professor. Her combined experience in counseling, vocational evaluation, and labor market analysis has prepared her to provide comprehensive and informed vocational consulting services.
